Rural Drinking Water Scheme

999. SHRI T.T.V. DHINAKARAN: Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether rural drinking water scheme has been launched; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI CHANDRA SEKHAR SAHU): (a) and (b) Rural water supply is a State subject and as such State Government are primarily responsible to provide drinking water to the rural habitations. Government of India supplements the efforts of the State governments through a Centrally Sponsored Scheme namely Accelerated Rural Water Supply Programme (ARWSP) State Governments are, however, competent to plan, sanction, implement and execute rural water supply schemes for the coverage of rural habitations from funds provided under ARWSP.

Implementation of NREGA

†1000. PROF. RAM DEO BHANDARY: Will the Minister of RURAL DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the State-wise status of the progress of works in comparison to year-wise targets under 'National Rural Employment Guarantee Act';

(b) whether State Governments utilize the money allocated by the Central Government for this yojana, if not, the status of such State;

(c) the measures taken by the Central Government for utilizing the money allocated to State;

(d) whether monitoring committees set up in districts have been successful in implementing this yojana in a proper manner ; and

(e) the steps being taken by the Government to implement these plans in a proper manner?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI CHANDRA SEKHAR SAHU): (a) NREGA is demand driven. Therefore, no targets can be fixed under the Act. State-wise status of the total works taken up, works completed and on going works for the years 2006-07 and 2007-08 (upto October, 07) is given in Statement (See below).

† Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.

(b) and (c) NREGA is demand driven and not an allocation based programme. A National Employment Guarantee Fund has been established for providing funds to the States for implementation of the Act. Provisions are made in the budget for implementation of the Act on the basis of funds utilized by the States and also on the basis of demand for work in the previous year. Funds are released to the States on receipt of a proposal along with a certificate indicating utilization of at least 60% of the available resources.

(d) Yes, Sir.

(e) For its proper implementation, the NREG Act is reviewed and monitored on regular basis. Vigilance and Monitoring Committees have been set up at State as well as district levels. Village Level Vigilance and Monitoring Committees have also been set up for local monitoring. Members of the Central Employment Guarantee Council also undertake field visits to various districts. National Level Monitors (NLMs) and Area Officers visit various districts to oversee the progress of the Act. NLMs have made 331 visits to Phase I and Phase II districts.
